Group Exercise

1. Identify some threats you observed for each of the sites visited?

2. What type(s) of data would you need to make informed decisions on managing these three threats?

3. What three main management challenges observed that are particularly relevant/common to your protected areas?

4. What are some management successes observed that could potentially be replicated in your protected areas?

5. Any other notable observations from the field visit?